

Discussion Questions for Isaiah 4:2 - Isaiah 6

- In contrast to the women in 3:16–23, “the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious” in that day (4:2). Who do you think the Branch is in this passage?
- According to 4:3, how will the survivors’ moral character be different from the character described in 3:8–9?
- According to 4:2–6, do those who are saved earn their deliverance or receive it as a gift? How can you tell?
- What is the message of the parable in 5:1–7?
- How does 5:1–7 portray God’s character?
- Explain the meaning of each of the six sins the Lord condemns in 5:8–30.
- Does 5:8–30 have any implications for your life? If so what are they?
- What are “unclean lips” (6:5)?
- What did the seraph’s act in 6:6–7 signify?
- In light of 6:5, why was this act necessary before God could give Isaiah a prophetic mission?
- Verses 6:9–10 are not a malicious curse. The Lord knows how the people will respond to Isaiah’s warning, and He pronounces the inevitable consequences. What is the necessary result of refusing to listen to God?
- Think about Isaiah’s mission (see 6:9–13). Why would God send someone with a message that was only going to make the people more stubborn?
- How did Isaiah feel about his mission (see 6:11) and what does his willingness to bear the message of 6:9–10 tell you about him?
- God told Isaiah ahead of time that the people would ignore him and so be decimated and decimated again. This was all part of God’s plan. But what hope did He leave Isaiah (see 6:13)?
- What one aspect of today’s study would you like to take to heart during the coming week?
